Councilman Loguercio said, "I was grateful for the opportunity to honor these five outstanding young men. Their commitment to the community and hard work over the years show what great role models they are for their peers and younger children to follow."

The Royal Rangers program is an activity-based, small group church ministry for boys and young men in grades K-12. The Gold Medal of Achievement represents the pinnacle of achievement in the Royal Rangers program. This prestigious award can only be achieved after many years of continuous effort in Royal Rangers.
